West Point class of 1967.

Sunday, May 26
@ 10PM

This documentary takes an honest and unflinching look at the shadow the Vietnam War continues to cast on surviving members of the West Point Class of 1967. Compelling interviews, archival photographs and footage, animated sequences and contemporary clips chronicle the men's experiences — from their challenging first year as plebes to the fierce hand-to-hand jungle combat to their post-Vietnam lives. A collection of West Pointers poignantly share, sometimes with great emotion, their first-hand stories about the carnage of war, the war's impact on their lives and beliefs, and their enduring bonds of brotherhood.

Saturday, May 25, 2:30 p.m., Great Performances at the Met - The Tempest will air preempting 2 1/2 hours of Saturday afternoon programming. Enjoy Robert LePage's production of Thomas Ades' opera, based on Shakespeare's The Tempest.

Sunday, May 26, 5:00 p.m., Eisenhower's Secret War - Part 1 and 6:00 p.m., Part 2. This program examines Dwight D. Eisenhower's unwavering commitment — both public and covert — to peaceful co-existence with the USSR in the tumultuous and uneasy Cold War years. Based on recent research by established scholars and writers, the two-part documentary series provides a fresh understanding of how Eisenhower's national security policies and tactics kept a divided world at peace during the 1950s and in the ensuing decades.
