WCTE Brings Roadtrip Nation To Putnam County

15,990 hours. That's how many hours a student spends in school from kindergarten through 12th grade in Tennessee. So what's next? That's the question many young people ask themselves after the giddiness of "senioritis" is gone. What do I do now? Career and college guidance is offered throughout secondary school for almost all students, but still, there is a certain ambiguity many feel upon entering the big world for the first time.

Four college students felt this same way back in 2001. California students Brian McAllister, Mike Marriner, Nathan Gebhard, and Amanda Gall felt their futures looming before them, not knowing which way they were heading. The career paths they had been led toward didn't seem to fit them, and they shared their feelings of frustration.

"We were all hanging out, sitting around our college apartment one night and we started talking about what we were going to do with our lives. We were frustrated. Graduation loomed and we had no clue about what we really wanted out of life. We sat there wondering why we felt compelled to do the standard post-college thing. Those roads didn't even interest us. It suddenly became clear to us that we needed to get out beyond the borders of our college campus, and California, to explore all the options we didn't even know existed. We needed more information. We needed more experience. We needed to meet more people. We needed to hit the road."

And hit the road they did. In an old RV they painted green, they headed out on a cross-country trip, seeking advice from people who had made careers out of what they loved to do. They learned as they went, having no interviewing experience, no camera or editing experience, and no contacts. They learned what their passions in life were, and they wanted to share.

They sent another team out the next year in their old RV and started a phenomenon, Roadtrip Nation. Every year since, a new group of young people set out to find what makes established people's careers tick, and they share their experiences online and on PBS.

The most recent branch of Roadtrip Nation is RoadtripNation.org, a non-profit organization that is dedicated to creating educational resources around Roadtrip Nation's Interview Archive. This division has developed an interactive and project-based curriculum for middle school, high school, and college students, the Roadtrip Nation Experience. The Experience takes education out of classrooms and into the real world using 21st century skills and activity-based learning.

“ So often, students don't realize the options available to them, and learning more about success from those who have succeeded makes them understand that they can do more than they think they can. ”

ELISABETH JONES
ENGLISH TEACHER, WHITE PLAINS ACADEMY

WCTE approached Putnam County schools with the activities from the Roadtrip Nation curriculum and 3 schools chose to participate -- Cookeville High School, Upperman High School and White Plains Academy. On October 30, the Roadtrip Nation's green RV will roll into Cookeville and stop at White Plains Academy to help inspire students.

“I think this program will be great for our students at White Plains Academy,” said English teacher Elisabeth Jones. “Many of our kids need life skills in communication, both spoken and written, and this program looks like it will give them that along with a big boost in self-confidence. So often, students don't realize the options available to them, and learning more about success from those who have succeeded makes them understand that they can do more than they think they can.”

White Plains Academy principal Joe Matheney added, “We are thankful that local businesses and individuals have shown an interest in the futures of our students at White Plains. I think Roadtrip Nation will give them even more tools to find jobs and careers with which they'll be successful.”

A Message from Becky

Becky Magura, President & CEO of WCTE

On Nov. 21st at 9pm and Thanksgiving Day at 7pm, I will have the opportunity, along with our viewers, to revisit a time that has long passed. It has become a tradition at WCTE to air a Thanksgiving special that we taped with my parents, Hubert and Dimple Roberson many, many years ago.

It is a very special tradition for me, allowing me a chance to go back to that time. My parents have been gone for over a decade and the house is gone as well... it's all gone except in my memory, and thanks to WCTE, in a program that lives on.

That's what we do at WCTE. We tell stories about the people and places of the Upper Cumberland. We capture those moments in time that are so fleeting and then share them both locally and nationally.

At WCTE our staff practices and cultivates an attitude of gratitude. You are a part of that. We truly care about the people we work with and for. We care about the stories we tell... your stories. So thank you. On behalf of all of our staff, please know that we appreciate this relationship we have with you as a member, investor and volunteer.

During this season of thanksgiving, I hope you will consider an end of the year gift for WCTE or perhaps a planned gift. The sustainability of the station depends on all of us. If you need more information about these opportunities to invest in the future of WCTE, please call me at 931-528-2222, ext. 211.

It's time. Let's make it happen together.

Have a great Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

ART Prowl 2013 Dazzles Cookeville With Art and Artists

Walking tour of studios, galleries set for Nov. 8-9

It's Lucky 13 for Cookeville's 13th annual ART Prowl studio and gallery tour scheduled for Nov. 8-9 in the WestSide district and surrounding areas.

Art lovers can see nearly 50 artists this year on Friday, noon-8 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m.- 6p.m. WestSide Business Association is supporting the tour as an underwriter, joining with Cookeville Arts Council, which provides a grant, generous patrons, sponsors and the artists themselves funding ART Prowl.

ART Prowl, the major event for non-profit Art Round Tennessee, showcases established and emerging local artists in all media - painting, photography, clay, jewelry, metal, fiber, sculpture, books, paper, wood and mixed media.

Many artists will be doing demonstrations of their artwork at various studios and gallery locations, providing visitors direct experience with art and artists, a major point in ART Prowl's mission statement. Art professionals also will give special talks and guided tours.

Sweet Sallie's Café and Bakery on North Oak Street will host the Welcome Center where visitors can pick up Passports for Art that they can get stamped at the locations for an opportunity at a drawing to win artwork.

For more information, including map, demonstration schedule and the artists, visit www.artprowl.com or contact artprowl@gmail.com.

UPPER CUMBERLAND HAUNTED HALF MARATHON 13.1

On October 19, over 400 runners ranging from 15 to 67 years of age, from all over the Tennessee and Kentucky, participated in the 5th Annual Upper Cumberland Haunted Half Marathon, with the proceeds benefitting WCTE. New course records for both male and female were set and thanks to the careful planning of the dedicated all-volunteer Haunted Half committee, the run went off without a hitch!

WCTE wishes to thank all of the volunteers – 30 from the ROTC, 120 volunteers from the community including the TTU fraternity, sorority and service groups, the TTU Cheerleaders, the Cookeville High School Cross Country Team, the Baptist Student Organization, the Wesley Foundation and the TTU Golden Eagle, who danced until feathers flew.

First and foremost, we wish to thank the all-volunteer committee. All of them are committed to promoting healthy outdoor activities and they did one heck of a job!

Kathy Callahan

by Andrea Moran

WCTE finds strength in volunteers such as Kathy Callahan, a Cookeville native who moved back after a brief relocation. "Once my children were old enough to attend school, I simply couldn't imagine my family living anywhere else," explains Kathy. Her family consists of Kathy's husband and three children, ages thirteen, twenty-two, and twenty-four.

Kathy began volunteering at WCTE's Great TV Auction five years ago. When the downtown office opened at 229 East Broad Street in Cookeville last month, Kathy's enthusiasm for WCTE made her a natural fit for the reception area, where visitors can now find her smiling face every Tuesday.

While the show Downton Abbey is a family favorite at the Callahan household, Kathy herself prefers the various live events that WCTE hosts throughout the year. She cites the Auction and Stations of Imagination as particular highlights, as well as Blues and Brews, for which she helps decorate.

When Kathy is not busy helping her local PBS station, she is a stay-at-home mother who describes her duties as one of a "household engineer."

Kathy, who boasts seven generations of family in Cookeville, feels fortunate that she was able to relocate back to a town in which her children could grow up around family. "That's exceedingly rare nowadays," she muses. "And this is such a special town, one with an incredibly strong sense of community." And it is that sense of community that Kathy continues to foster during her time at WCTE.

David Strathairn as Lincoln

LINCOLN @ GETTYSBURG

Tuesday, November 19

In 1863, Abraham Lincoln proved himself a master of a new frontier — not on the battlefields of the Civil War, but in his high-tech command center: the War Department Telegraph Office. The internet of the 19th century, the telegraph gave Lincoln new powers to reshape leadership and wield personal control across distant battlefields. It also connected him to the country in new ways, as information poured in, and allowed him to feel the pulse of the country faster than before. The results of Lincoln's pioneering experiment in communication led to the rebirth of America on the fields of Gettysburg ... both in the battle that turned the tide of the Civil War and in the few words that recast the American ideal as a national creed: the Gettysburg Address. David Strathairn (Lincoln) narrates.

Carol Burnett: The Mark Twain Prize Sunday, November 24

Carol Burnett — comedic icon and all-around performing legend — is the guest of honor when, for the 16th year, the comedy world convenes in Washington, DC, to toast this year's recipient of the Kennedy Center's Mark Twain Prize for American Humor. The all-star cast includes Julie Andrews, Lucie Arnaz, Tony Bennett, Tim Conway, Tina Fey, Rashida Jones, Vicki Lawrence, Amy Poehler, Maya Rudolph, Martin Short and Rosemary Watson. The program features comedic highlights from Burnett's half-century in show business.

An award-winning actress and best-selling author, Carol is widely recognized by the public and her peers for her work on stage and screen, most notably The Carol Burnett Show. Named in 2007 by TIME magazine as one of "100 Best Television Shows of All Time," The Carol Burnett Show ran for 11 years, averaged 30 million viewers per week, and received 25 Emmy Awards, making it one of the most honored shows in television history. But it is Carol's artistic brilliance, her respect and appreciation of her fans, and her graciousness, integrity, warmth, and humor on and off screen that have made her one of the most beloved performers in entertainment and one of the most admired women in America.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

Train Your Dog Like a Pro Saturday, November 30

If you're like most dog owners, you treat your four-legged friend as a valued member of the family who enjoys the full run of the house—which is why good behavior is so important. Jean Donaldson's Train Your Dog Like a Pro offers a trusted, systematic approach to positive dog training that anyone can follow. You'll get clear, detailed instructions for teaching essential behaviors, more advanced skills, and even some fun tricks.

Through a Dog's Eyes Saturday, December 7

Exploring the Human-Canine Bond through the moving stories of service dogs and the people whose lives they change.

Millions of Americans with disabilities rely on hope to get them through each day; hope for a breakthrough; hope for gaining or reclaiming independence; and hope for a friend. Each year, hundreds of them find hope at a handful of organizations across the country that train assistance dogs for people with disabilities. Through a Dog's Eyes follows the life-changing journey of recipients as they go through the heartwarming and sometimes difficult process of receiving and being matched with a service dog. Jennifer Arnold, founder of one of the nation's largest service dog organizations, Canine Assistants, shows her unique teaching methods and lets viewers have an intimate look at the canine-recipient matching process.

2014 Blues & Brews Festival in Cookeville

On Friday, October 4, during WCTE's 7th Annual Blues and Brews fundraiser, the PBS station's President & CEO, Becky Magura, and the President of SEC Enterprises, Ottis Phillips, unveiled plans for a Blues and Brews Festival. The one-day festival will be held in Cookeville in October 2014, featuring live music, food from local restaurants and of course, plenty of different brews to sample.

"Our partners have helped make the event extremely popular and I believe that our success together will only grow," enthused Magura. "The time is right to take it to the next level."

"We've been thrilled to be involved with this event since the beginning," commented Phillips. "We are excited to see it grow into a larger event that people not only from our community, but from the Upper Cumberland and the state will come out and enjoy. There is a tremendous amount of planning and preparation that goes into any event like this, but with WCTE as a partner you can expect it to be first class."

THE STATE OF ARIZONA

This documentary captures the explosive emotions and complex realities behind Arizona's headline-grabbing struggle with illegal immigration. Tracking the year after Arizona passes SB1070, its controversial "papers please" law, the film tells the stories of Arizonans on all sides of this divisive issue and depicts a state and its people testing the edges of our democratic values. With dozens of states considering a similar approach, The State of Arizona holds a mirror and asks Americans who they are, and who they want to be.

JFK

JFK provides a fresh look at an enigmatic man who remains one of the nation's most beloved and mourned leaders. Beginning with Kennedy's childhood years as the privileged but sickly second son of one of the wealthiest men in America, the film explores his early political career as a lackluster congressman, his successful run for the U.S. Senate, and the game-changing presidential campaign that made him the youngest elected president in U.S. history.

With the benefit of recently opened archives, the film recounts his struggles with life-threatening illnesses and his efforts to keep them hidden from the public. JFK offers new perspectives on his complicated private life, including his relationship with his wife, his close connection to his younger brother, Robert, and his complex bond with his powerful father. It also reevaluates Kennedy's strengths and weaknesses in the Oval Office as he navigated some of the most explosive events of the 20th century: the disastrous failure at the Bay of Pigs, the urgent demands of an increasingly impatient civil rights movement, the Cuban Missile Crisis, and the escalating conflict in Southeast Asia.

"John F. Kennedy is an iconic figure in American politics, known for his soaring rhetoric and the youthful energy and glamour he brought to the presidency," says filmmaker Susan Bellows. "However, he wasn't a born politician, and he struggled with debilitating health challenges throughout his life. Our film looks at his journey to the Oval Office, the ambition that propelled him there, and how he navigated one of the most pivotal eras in American history."

PART ONE

Part One follows JFK's rise to power from his birth to his election as president in 1960 — the youngest man ever to be elected to the office. With illuminating interviews from family members, including sister Jean Kennedy Smith, niece Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, historian Robert Dallek and author Robert Caro, this episode offers new insight into Kennedy's early years, from his transformation from a sickly youth to Washington's most eligible bachelor to the nation's president.

PART TWO

Part Two follows Kennedy into the White House, through his assassination and the unfulfilled promise of his presidency. Offering fresh assessments of the successes and failures of his tenure, this episode features frank appraisals by administration officials, including John Seigenthaler, Thomas Hughes and Harris Wofford, civil rights leaders Andrew Young and Julian Bond, and journalists Evan Thomas and Richard Reeves.

Looking ahead to the next election, Kennedy knows he must win Texas to have a second term. So he takes a fateful trip to Dallas, with Jackie accompanying him on her first domestic trip. It is there that an assassin's bullet ends his life, forever enshrining him in myth.
