

WNIN-TV Standardized Television Disclosure Form (Program/Topic Report)
January-March 2012
Prepared by Bonnie Rheinhardt
VP TV Programming & Operations
March 30, 2012

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WNIN-TV, Evansville, IN, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period 1/1/12 – 3/30/12. This listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Type/Description
State Legislation/ Balanced Budget	Lawmakers 2012	Sundays 1/15/12 -2-27-12	11:30am	30 minutes	Each week, this locally-produced series featured different Legislators were interviewed about issues up for vote in this year's legislative season. At the top of the list, was maintaining the balanced budget, and the possible uses for the reserved funds that were recently discovered.
Community Health Evansville's Obesity Problem	Building a Healthier Tri-State	Saturdays 2/4/12 – 3/24/12	6:00pm	30 minutes	This locally-produced series focused on local issues of health. Topics included, Community Design, Complete Streets, Food Access, Changing our Food Culture, and Safe Routes to Schools. Each episode highlighted the problem and solutions that local groups have instituted
Children's Health Obesity and Behavioral Problems with youth in Henderson, KY	Growing Up Healthy in Henderson	2/8/12 2/10/12	7:00pm 10:00pm	60 minutes	This live forum featured a variety of health and behavioral experts from the Henderson Kentucky area as they discussed obesity and behavioral problems in children. Rated as the two top health concerns for children in Northwestern Kentucky, this program provided an interactive means for viewers to ask question and learn about the options and solutions available.
The reintegration of Veterans into the Community	Answering the Call	1/8/12	11:30pm	30 minutes	This locally produced program featured local WWII veterans telling their stories about war and coming home . This program aired as part of the partnership between WNIN and USI to educate the community about issues facing veterans.
Local History Preserving Landmarks	Old Stones in New Harmony	1/12/12	7:00pm	60 minutes	This locally-produced documentary examined the history and the 3-year restoration of the Granary Building located in New Harmony Indiana.
Black History	Snapshots of Southern Indiana Lyles Station	1/22/12	3:30pm	30 minutes	This locally-produced program looked at the rich history and impact that Lyles Station had on the black population in our area. It examined the school, the area, and the people who were instrumental in building the community.
Local Culture	Mesker Park Zoo and Botanical Garden	2/5/12	3:30pm	30 minutes	This locally-produced program featured the Mesker Park Zoo and Botanical Gardens. Viewers had the opportunity to tour the Zoo, including the new Amazonia exhibit, and learn about this valuable resource that is available in their backyard.

In addition to the reported programs, WNIN regularly tapes and airs various speakers and presentations that have a local interest.. During the 1st quarter of 2012, WNIN provided the following content on 9-2: A Collaboration in Arts Education Symposium taped 2/4/12, Bob Warren on Evansville's Bicentennial taped 2/28/12, and Mayor Winnecke's State of the City address taped 3/27/12.