- May 6 - Day at the Amana Colonies for Maifest, the Amana Colonies Celebration of Spring. - B, D
  A National Historic Landmark since 1965, the Amana Colonies is a group of seven settlements founded in 1855 by a group of German Pietists. Until the mid-1930’s, the people of the Amana's lead a self-sufficient communal life. They were able to achieve this independence and life style by adhering to the specialized handcrafts and farming occupations which they brought from Germany. Your day at the Amana Colonies will begin with an included sight seeing tour with a local guide. This historically entertaining morning tour will take you to places off the beaten path and include stops at several interesting attractions along with way. After the morning tour you will be on your own for lunch and to explore the main village of Amana and take in the Maifest – the music, Maipole Dancers, the craft and food venders, and exploring on your own. Your day will end with an included traditional Amana dinner at the famous Ronneburg Restaurant.
