★ mpt SALUTES ★
VIETNAM
VETERANS

June 2016

Dear Vietnam Veteran:

This weekend is for you.

It's Maryland Public Television's way of expressing our thanks as well as the gratitude of our members and viewers – in fact, the gratitude of all Marylanders – for your sacrifice and service some five decades ago.

As this weekend's event, LZ Maryland, wraps up our four-year effort called MPT Salutes Vietnam Veterans, we invite you to spend these hours with us and with your families and friends, taking in all the ceremonies, displays, entertainment, and other features. They are all designed to educate our fellow citizens about the Vietnam era and to toast your heroism and courage in an unpopular war. You were not thanked then. We sincerely thank you now.

Welcome home!

Larry D. Unger
President & CEO
Maryland Public Television

June 2016

To my fellow Vietnam veterans:

It's not often that a soldier gets to sit on both sides of an effort – but that's exactly what I've experienced since I joined the MPT team in July 2013 as coordinator of the project called MPT Salutes Vietnam Veterans. I had the chance to work on the project to toast all Vietnam-era veterans but also got to be included among the veterans being saluted by my MPT colleagues and by all the other partners in this multi-year effort.

It has been an exhilarating experience. I've seen all the behind-the-scenes work on the TV documentary that premiered last month and the years of effort leading to LZ Maryland June 18-19. This MPT team of professionals started out in 2012 with just one focus: the Vietnam veteran. We've kept that sole focus throughout the past four years. As a team member, I'm proud, and as a veteran, I'm honored.

And so, on both counts, I invite you to relish the reunion and reflection opportunity that LZ Maryland gives us and to savor the long-overdue tributes directed your way. I look forward to joining my MPT colleagues at the event in saying "Thank you for your service!"

Sincerely,

Fred Shinbur, Coordinator
MPT Salutes Vietnam Veterans Initiative

LZ MARYLAND CLOSE-UP:

WHERE TO FIND EVENTS, CEREMONIES, EXHIBITS, AND ATTRACTIONS

Please consult the “zone” map on page 4 & 5 to spot the areas you wish to visit. Here’s what you’ll find at each zone:

Zone 1 Infield & grandstands

- Chair Memorial – a powerful memorial of 1,017 white empty chairs in the Infield in silent tribute to Marylanders killed or missing in action; nearby signage indicates the chair reserved for each of the fallen.
- Main Stage – the focal point for ceremonies as well as headline talent, concerts, USO show.
- Motorpool and aircraft displays – Vietnam-era military vehicles (tanks, jeeps) and a half-dozen aircraft such as a Huey helicopter (yes, climb in!). It’s a great photo opportunity!
- Reunion lounges – Veterans and their families are encouraged to migrate to the lounges to reunite with comrades, relax and relate; each of 5 branch-of-service lounges is clearly marked for Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marines to stop in.
- Mess Hall – the one-stop for food/beverages including traditional festival fare and Vietnamese cuisine; alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages available.
- The Wall That Heals – the traveling, half-size replica of DC’s Vietnam Veterans Memorial includes a mobile Education Center, featuring memorabilia left at the memorial.
- Honor Ride – site of the culmination of the 11-mile LZ Maryland Honor Ride as hundreds of motorcycle riders, most veterans, enter in formation and conduct a throttle ceremony to salute the fallen.

Zone 2 Exhibition Building

Note: Main Stage events simulcast here.

- Screening Room – an air-conditioned “theatre” with comfortable seating where visitors can view nonstop films about Vietnam, including MPT’s own Maryland Vietnam War Stories and PBS specials.
- MPT Salutes Vietnam Veterans Traveling Exhibit – it’s traveled the state since mid-2015 and now it’s here, featuring both current-day and wartime images of 16 men and women along with their reflections on their service and other memories.
- Artifact display – View dozens of Vietnam War-era artifacts such as uniforms, metals, c-rations, steel pots, p-38’s, artwork, photographs, and more.
- The Wall of Faces – a portable memorial bearing faces of each Maryland Vietnam veteran lost in the war; solemn recognition of the Vietnam veterans who sacrificed their lives; faces put to the names of those we honor.
- Mess Hall – food/beverages.

Zone 3 Midway / Show Rings / Maryland Foods Pavilion

- Basic Training Course – where family members can compete as they race against time in this boot camp-inspired obstacle course.
- Glenn L. Martin Aviation Museum – Huey helicopter display with crew
- Mess Hall – food/beverages.
- Tour of Duty Map – the large walk-on, sign-on map of Southeast Asia, awaiting signatures or notations by men and women who were there.
- Motorpool vehicles – various wheeled and track-driven Vietnam era vehicles.

Zone 4 Cow Palace

Note: Main Stage events simulcast here.

- Auxiliary Stage – features regional/local bands performing hits from the ‘50s, ‘60s, & ‘70s.
- Veteran Services Village – site of valuable veteran resources, services and seminars; representatives of veteran service organizations (VSOs) or nonprofits that provide veteran-oriented services are on hand to connect veterans to the resources/benefits available to them; representatives can assist one-on-one with advice on PTSD, Agent Orange, traumatic brain injuries, and other concerns; legal, financial, and housing specialists and more.
- Writers Hooch – Presented by The Ivy Bookshop meet Vietnam veteran-authors and other writers of Vietnam-focused fiction/non-fiction; attend authors’ presentations and purchase their books.
- Vietnam Education Project – prepared by middle and high school students who engaged in oral history and other projects exploring the Vietnam era and those who served. Opportunity for oral history interviews.
- Presentation Stage – lively presentations by experts in their fields on a variety of Vietnam-related topics.
- Mess Hall – food/beverages.
- R&R Family Zone – a retreat for activities, shopping and dining that can be enjoyed by the entire family; includes kids craft station, motorpool, thank-you gallery.
- LZ Maryland merchandise – site of ready-to-wear official LZ Maryland apparel, souvenir challenge coins, and other merchandise.

TIPS FOR PLANNING YOUR LZ MARYLAND VISIT

MPT anticipates an extraordinary weekend with nonstop activity and much to see, learn, and do. We hope your visit will be a long one. Remember, your free or paid ticket is good for the whole weekend, so be sure to come both days.

General information

- LZ Maryland is held rain or shine. (Plenty of indoor space and tents can provide shelter in the event of rainshowers.)
- Be prepared for the weather; wear appropriate clothing.
- Since activities and displays are spread throughout the fairgrounds, we suggest you wear comfortable shoes.
- Look for the LZ Maryland Tram to help you get from the parking lots to the each of the venues.
- Guests will find plenty of food/beverage stands and seating throughout the site.
- Guests with mobility issues should visit the LZ Maryland website (mpt.org/lzmaryland) to review accessibility plans.
- LZ Maryland merchandise is available for purchase in the Cow Palace.

Getting to the event

- Ride the bus or Light Rail. Public transportation is the best way to get to LZ Maryland. The Light Rail's fairgrounds stop (2335 Greenspring Dr.) is just steps away from the entrance. The MTA No. 9 bus line also serves the Timonium Park-and-Ride lots and Light Rail Stop. MTA services are available for disabled persons. For info on bus, Light Rail, and Mobility service, call 410-539-5000 (toll-free 1-866-RIDE-MTA or TTY 410-539-3497) or visit www.mta.maryland.gov.
- Driving and parking:
 - ~ The fairgrounds are located near the intersection of York and Timonium Roads (2200 York Rd., Timonium, MD). One vehicle access gate is located on York Road between Padonia and Timonium Roads and one on West Timonium Road about 1/4 mile east of Interstate 83 (I-83), just past the Light Rail tracks.
 - From southbound I-83* - Take Exit 17, Padonia Road, east to York Road; south on York Road to either fairgrounds entrance on the right.
 - From northbound I-83* - Take Exit 18, York Road, east, to the fairgrounds entrance on the left.
 - ~ Free fairgrounds parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please allow extra time for parking and consider alternate locations as we anticipate lots will fill quickly.
- Park-and-Ride: Parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis at the Park-and-Ride lot on Deereco Road, with pedestrian access to the fairgrounds through the gate opposite the Cow Palace.

Admission

Admission is free for veterans, active-duty military, Gold Star families, and children 12 and under. All other guests pay only a $5 entry fee for the entire weekend.

- Advance ticketing: are good for June 18 and 19. Order free and paid tickets in advance to speed your entry; visit mpt.org/lzmaryland, place your order, and print out one confirmation per guest. Visitors may also show their online confirmations on your phone at the gate.
- Tickets at the gate: CASH ONLY! Four ticket booths will be open for entry and ticket sales. Entry gates are at Timonium Road; York Road North Gate; the Light Rail entry point; and the Midway parking lot on the grounds. Note to veterans: Look for the express line for veteran-only (free) entry.
- In-and-out: Guests are permitted to re-enter the fairgrounds at any time. Be sure to get a hand stamp as you exit to speed your re-entry. Please retain your ticket confirmation emails and ticket stubs for re-entry on Sunday.

Bag check

S.A.F.E. Mangement, Inc. will conduct bag check at each of the four fairgrounds entrances. To ensure a fast entry, guests should review the following list of items that are or aren't allowed at LZ Maryland. Please be ready for inspection of bags or contents of any bulky pockets. Guests refusing bag check will not be permitted onto the fairgrounds.

Okay to bring ...

- camping/tailgate chairs
- picnic blankets
- small bags (subject to bag check)
- sunscreen, hat, sunglasses
- umbrellas
- strollers/wagons

Not permitted ...

- weapons (includes but not limited to firearms, knives, swords, pepper-spray, mace)
- alcoholic beverages
- glass bottles/ containers
- tents
- coolers
- hoverboards
- drones
- bicycles

If any of the above items are found during bag check, you'll have the opportunity to return them to your car, or they will become property of the Maryland State Fairgrounds. Items may not be left at entrance gates for pick-up later. If weapons are discovered during bag check, the police will be alerted.

Animals

Sorry, but pets are not allowed at LZ Maryland. Service animals and emotional support animals are welcome to accompany their handlers, but, in accordance with ADA policy, service animals must be controlled by their handlers.

Policy regarding petitions, politicking, and protests

The focus of LZ Maryland is, at all times, the Vietnam veteran. In the spirit of thanking and welcoming home our veterans, any actions straying from this purpose will not be tolerated. As the event organizers and renters of the fairgrounds (private property), MPT reserves the right to remove ANY individual or group causing a disruption. Persons/groups leafleting or bringing static displays who have not been invited by MPT event organizers or persons/groups campaigning for any politician or political campaign will be asked to leave the site.

Latrines (restrooms)

Indoor and outdoor restrooms, including ADA-compliant facilities, are available throughout the fairgrounds.

Maryland Public Television (MPT) launched its landmark three-hour documentary Maryland Vietnam War Stories last month. Frequent rebroadcasts on MPT-HD and MPT2 will be scheduled in the coming months. Now, under the title American War Stories: Vietnam, MPT has released the film to public TV stations across the country. To see if the documentary is playing in your market, check your local listings or reach out to your local public TV station. (Public TV stations may use the film immediately or possibly show it in the coming months or around Veterans Day.) The documentary is also posted online for viewing at mpt.org/AmericanWarStories.

The salute continues

LZ Maryland may draw to a close on June 19, but Maryland Public Television's salute to Vietnam-era veterans continues as the MPT Salutes Vietnam Veterans Traveling Exhibit continues to stop at venues statewide for the remainder of 2016. Check out the exhibit schedule at mpt.org/travelingexhibit.

Coming in 2017 from PBS is the The Vietnam War, a film by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick. This documentary is a 10-part series running 18½ hours, shedding new light on the military, political, cultural, social, and human dimensions of a tragedy of epic proportions that took the lives of more than 58,000 Americans and as many as three million Vietnamese.

LZ Maryland

visitors, come on board the US Coast Guard Cutter Taney

Now through June 26, just present your LZ Maryland ticket stub or email confirmation when you board the Coast Guard Cutter Taney at Pier 5 at Baltimore's Inner Harbor, and you'll be admitted free to tour this "Vietnam veteran" vessel. The USCGC Taney carried out a year's tour of duty in Operation Market Time during 1969-70. Come, learn about its Vietnam service and have a hands-on encounter with history!
