

What I would do with Fifty Dollars

If I had fifty dollars, I would feel so excited! I would ask to go to Walmart so I could spend it all!

Press, G. (2018). 1996 Fifty Dollar Federal Reserve Notes [Digital image].

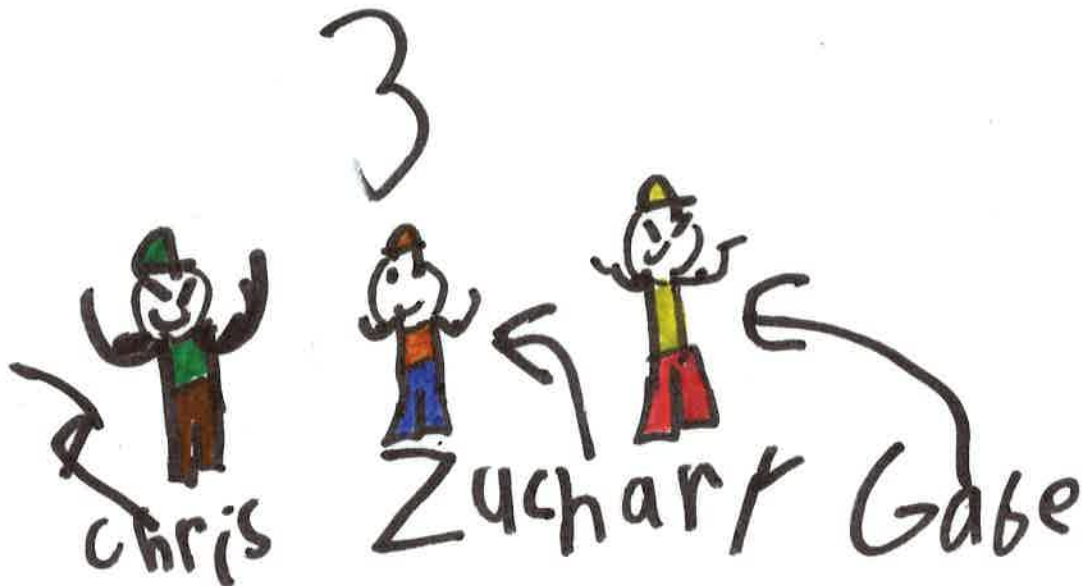

I would like to buy a really large water super soaker. It would be so big, in fact, that it could hold up to five gallons of water! I bet it would cost about $5.00, but it would be worth it to soak my brothers!

Glem, L. in d. (Best Mid Range Water Gun). Retrieved December 3, 2019, from <https://wiki.ezvid.com/best-water-guns>

What I would do with Fifty Dollars

Did you know I am a triplet? That means my mom had three babies at once, and guess what? We are all nine-year-old boys!

Now, back to my spending. With my leftover money, I would look for some green slime to put in my super soaker. I'll get a bunch of slime, go up on the roof of the house, and dump it on my brothers when they are coming out of the door! I love playing tricks on my brothers. Maybe if there's still some money left, I will buy them something too.

Chris