

Finding New Friends

By
Emily Siegrist

A bunny family moved from Pennsylvania to California.

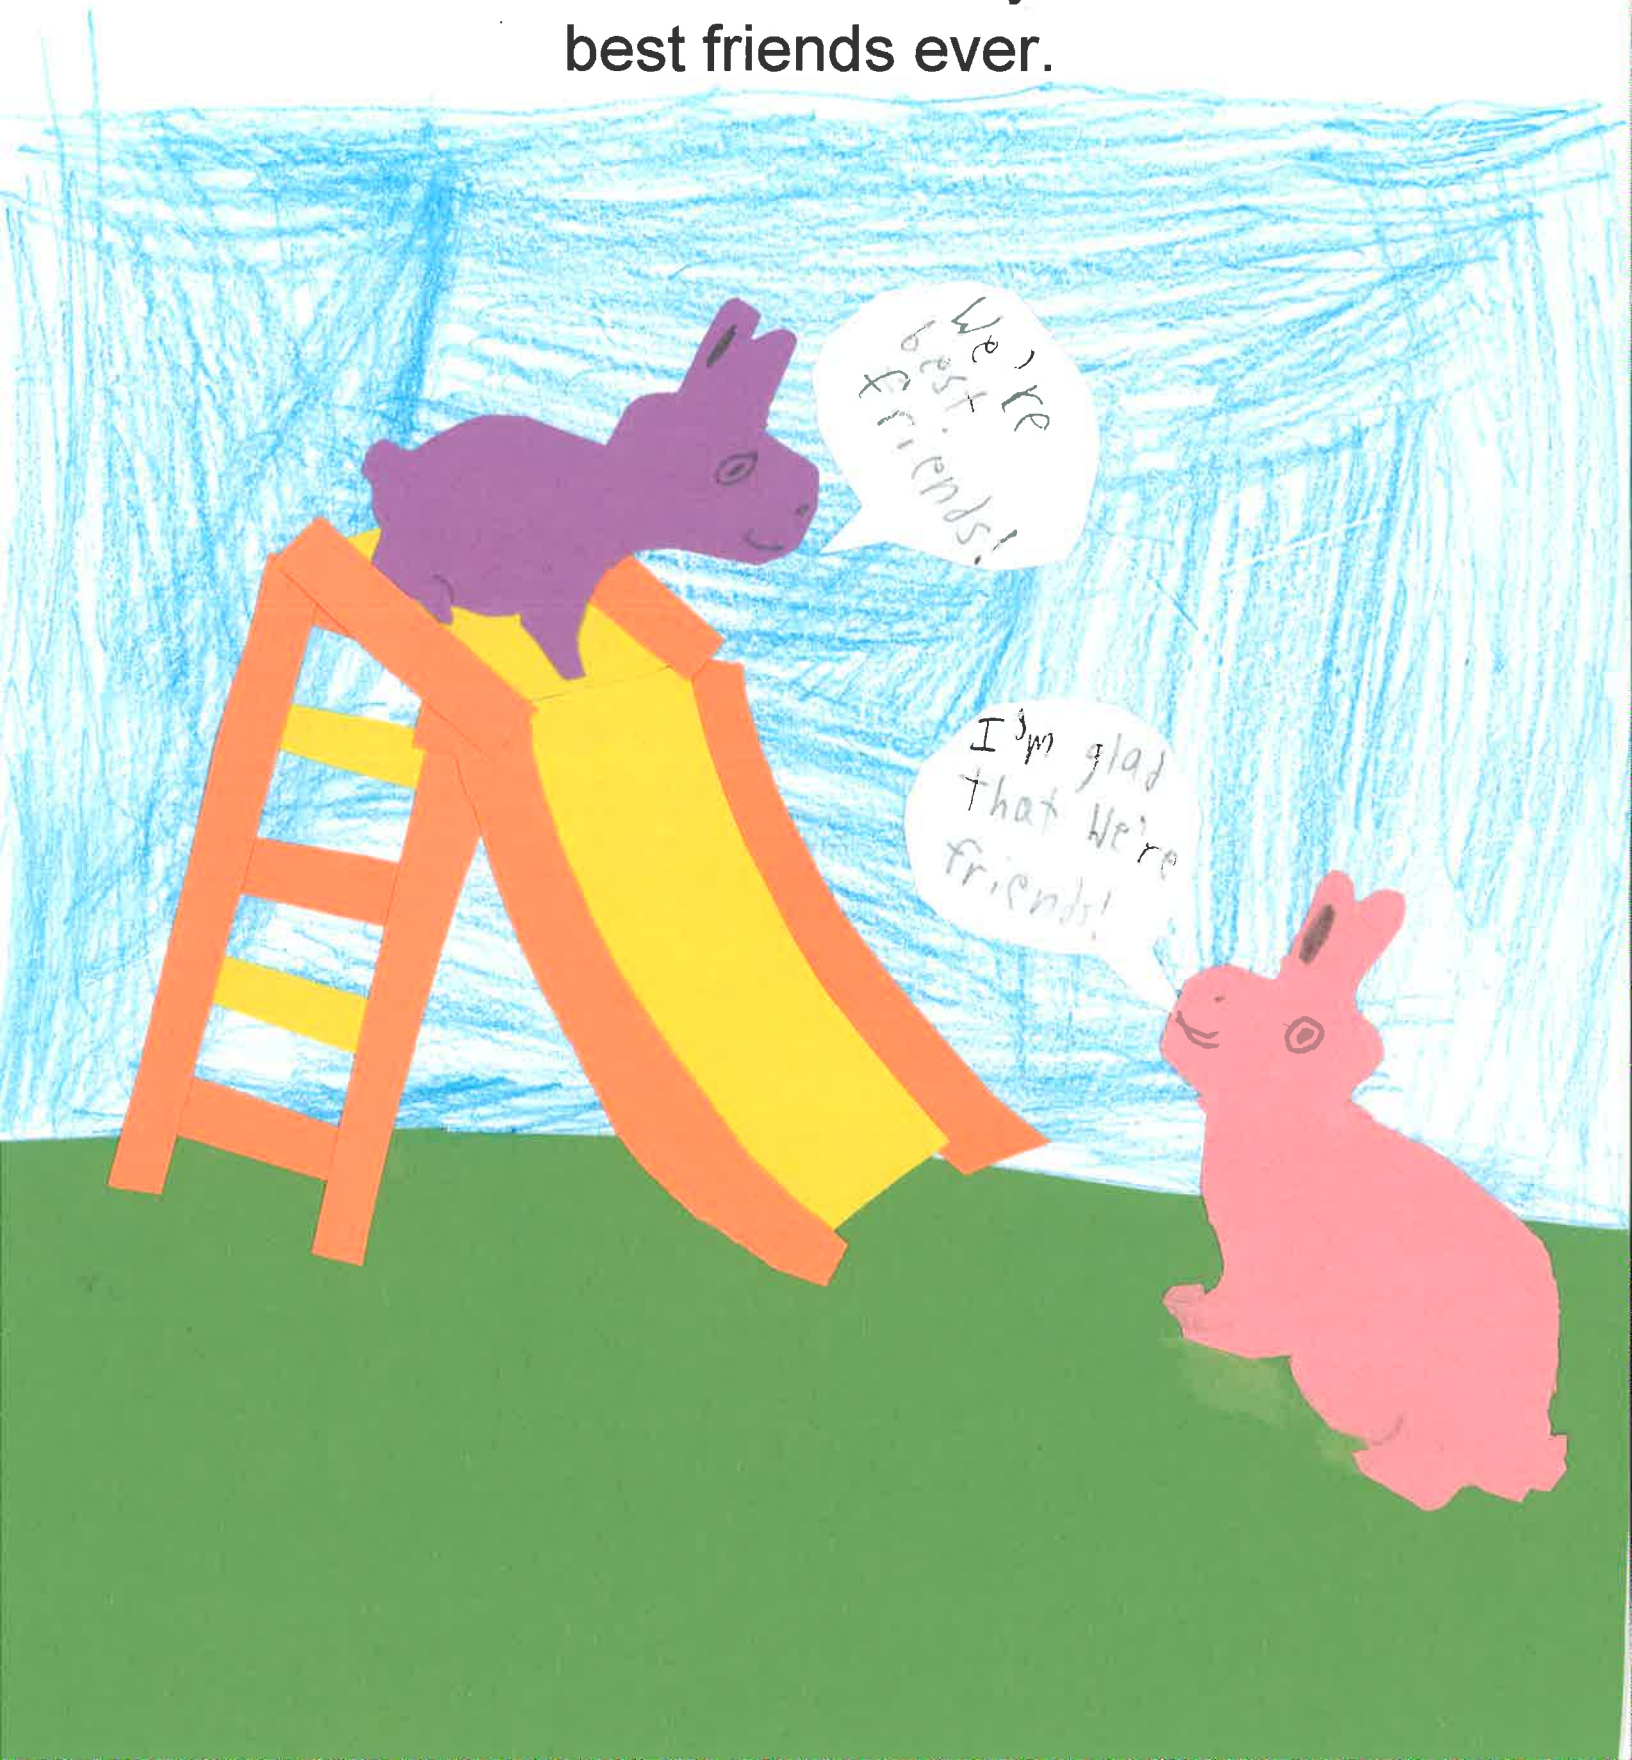

Emily bunny is sad that she left her best friend Sophia. She talked to her mom. "You will be friends with someone in your new school. Do not be afraid. Be strong and courageous. Show love and kindness to your new classmates."

The first day of school, her teacher named Mrs. Darrah, welcomed Emily.

Emily met a girl named Arabella. Then they talked and talked. Then they became the best friends ever.

When Emily got home from school, she talked to her sisters Elizabeth, Samantha, and Starlight. She said to her sisters, "I met a new best friend. Her name is Arabella. Now I feel better about living in California. Now I am happy and excited!"

The End!
