Kevin and the flying dog

Kevin wanted a dog. He wanted any dog. So, his mom took him to the pet store. He saw an adorable dog. But there was one problem. The dog had wings. "There won't be trouble," said Mr. Pollie. "The dog can't fly". So, they bought the dog and went home. So, when they got home they put the dog in the barn. "Let's name him rover!" screamed Kevin's younger sister Kea. YES! yelled Kevin. Perfect!!

So, Dad poured Rover more water and said, I think the other animals need food. While they were feeding the animals, Rover flew over the fence and into the house. When they got back, Rover was gone. He couldn't have gotten...Dad was interrupted by a crash! It was coming from inside. The closer they got, the crash got louder. When Dad opened the door, Rover flew overhead chasing Beth, Kea's newborn kitten. BEEEEETTTHH!!! Screamed Kea. Rover came to a stop. Beth jumped and Kea caught her. Bad Rover! Said Mom. Nothing was broken but Kevin's kindergarten picture. Kea was very very mad and said, YOU TRIED TO EAT MY KITTY!!! It's okay Kea. Said Kevin picking up Rover. It's okay.

Then Rover flew out of his hands and into the woods. Oh nooo!
Said Kevin. Catch that dog!!! Now Rover was heading toward Lake Safari. Rover dove into the lake. When Rover's wings touched the water, he could no longer fly. Rover was floating on the water. Kevin and his Dad came running with a fishing net.
Dad got down on the rocks and lowered the fishing net into the water and Rover floated into the net. Kevin picked Rover up and brought him home. And everybody was happy and they celebrated. THE END!

yamoo!
