Secrets of the Longleaf Pine

Program Source: American Public Television

Monday, January 2, 2017

7pm – 56 minutes

Thursday, January 26, 2017

8pm – 56 minutes

DETAILS: SECRETS OF THE LONGLEAF PINE explores the forgotten Longleaf Pine forest that historically blanketed the coastal plain of the southeastern United States. Once comprising 90 million sprawling acres, the over-exploited forest declined to just a fraction of that size by the 20th century. Only a tiny percentage of precious old growth remains, but these remarkable patches display more biodiversity than any other ecosystem in the northern hemisphere. The hour-long film takes viewers on an unprecedented journey through the forest to examine some of the unique plants and animals that can only be found here, including the Gopher Tortoise, one of North America's largest tortoises that can live up to 70 years old; the Eastern Indigo Snake, the longest native snake to North America; and the Red-Cockaded Woodpecker, which is the only woodpecker to make its nest in a living tree. The program also profiles the conservation efforts that are helping to restore the incredible biologically diverse ecosystem.

Assassination of Abraham Lincoln: American Masters

Program Source: PBS

Tuesday, January 13, 2017

8pm – 56 minutes

DETAILS: On March 4, 1865, at the United States Capitol, a crowd of 50,000 listened as President Lincoln delivered his classic second inaugural address, urging charity and forgiveness to a nation in the final throes of war. Just two months later, a train, nine cars long and draped in black bunting, pulled slowly out of a station in Washington, DC. Dignitaries and government officials crowded the first eight cars. In the ninth rode the body of Abraham Lincoln - America's first assassinated president. Some seven million people would line the tracks or file past the casket to bid an emotional farewell to the martyred president. But as the funeral train made its way across nine states and through hundreds of cities and towns, the largest manhunt in history was closing in on Lincoln's assassin, the famous actor John Wilkes Booth. This film recounts a great American drama: two tumultuous months when the joy of peace was shattered by the heartache of assassination. At the heart of the story are two figures who define the extremes of character: Lincoln, who had the strength to transform suffering into infinite compassion, and Booth, who allowed hatred to curdle into destruction.
