

9.2 WNIN-TV Program/Topic Report
 Janaury-March 2016
 Prepared by Bonnie Rheinhardt
 VP TV Programming & Operations
 March 31, 2016

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WNIN-TV, Evansville, IN, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period 1/1/16 – 3/31/16. This listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Type/Description
Arts	Butler Arts Festival 2015	1/6/16	5:00pm	60 minutes	A showcase of stand-out performances and backstage insight from Butler ArtsFest 2015: Outlaws and Outsiders. This eclectic Festival from Indianapolis' Butler University curates artists from around the world who have thrived from pushing the envelope to create extraordinary art.
State Legislation	Indiana Week in Review	Mondays Tuesdays Thursdays	5:00pm 4:30pm 5:00pm	30 minutes	This weekly program features a look at the issues facing Indiana citizens. Each issue is debated between a variety of guests with different backgrounds and viewpoints.
Indiana Business	Inside Indiana Business	Mondays Tuesdays Wednesdays	4:00pm 5:00pm 6:00pm	60 minutes	This weekly series features up-to-date business news from the State. Highlights include business innovations, expansions, news, mergers, etc. The series is hosted by Gerry Dick.
Legal Issues	Indiana Courts	Tuesdays Fridays	6:00pm 5:00pm	60 minutes	This series consists of various Indiana Supreme Court appeals that have occurred over the past several years. These trials portray a variety of cases and crimes and allow viewers to hear the arguments and rulings.
Children	Children of the Dumping Ground	3/10/16	4:00pm	60 minutes	What happens to children with intellectual and developmental disabilities who become ensnared in America's juvenile justice system? This film presents the journey of a 14 year old abused child who couldn't read or write, had no family, no guardian and no legal counsel.
Education	Making Connections	1/21/16	4:00pm	60 minutes	Our moderator and panelists will explore the unique challenges that rural districts face in regard to supporting students at risk of dropping out of high school. They also will share dropout prevention strategies used in a rural Indiana school district and discuss how current dropout prevention research applies in rural communities. The event will feature John Hill, Ph.D., executive director of the National Rural Education Association; Caitlin Howley, Ph.D., fellow at ICF International; and Terry Sargent, Ph.D., superintendent of Jennings County Schools (Indiana).
Black History	Indiana Trailblazers	2/3/16 2/10/16 2/17/16	5:00pm 5:00pm 5:00pm	60 minutes 60 minutes 30 minutes	Trace the steps of African-Americans as they migrate from the southern slave states and organize prosperous black settlements and thriving commerce centers across Indiana. You will learn about the state's black legislators in the early 1900's, including attorney Henry J. Richardson (deceased) who was on the front lines of the legal fight for equality across Indiana and the country, as told by his sons for the first time. Richardson's landmark legal and civic work serve as a backdrop for the discussion regarding disparate treatment, socially and educationally, as more state black leaders emerge and join the fight for racial equality.

Aging	Baby Boom to Aging Boom	3/9/16	5:00pm	30 minutes	It is certainly possible to grow old and have a good quality of life, but the volume of individuals crossing the threshold from middle age to senior status will have implications for years to come. For individuals and their families, it is also a time to have conversations about protecting finances, anticipating the day when driving is no longer an option, planning ahead for possible declining health and consider what it takes to remain connected to the community, even in advancing years. Produced with support from the Central Indiana Senior Fund.
Arts	Fireworks: The 2014 International Violin Contest of Indianapolis	3/23/16	5:00pm	60 minutes	Once every four years, a violin competition is held in Indianapolis that is not only considered the model for other competitions around the world, but also one that can transform the lives and careers of the participants. Held last September over two weeks, the 9th Quadrennial International Violin Competition of Indianapolis was filmed in its entirety by WFYI's production crew. From more than 200 hours of footage, comes this documentary ? a one-hour program that takes viewers inside the contest. You'll meet the 37 young contestants and see their performances, hear from judges, host families and other contest insiders, and feel the ups and downs of this competition as it culminates in the launching of a concert violinist's career. This documentary is produced by Emmy-winner Gary Harrison of WFYI.