Dancing in the Commons Returns

IN MEMORIAM

JACK GALMICHE (1948–2019)
IN MEMORIAM

JACK GALMICHÉ (1948—2019)

At press time, we unexpectedly lost our president and CEO, Jack Galmiche. Jack passed away suddenly at the age of 71. We are all heartbroken. We will celebrate his life and legacy in the next issue when we fully come to grips with his passing.

We felt it appropriate to publish his last letter to honor his memory, which hints at his legacy. In February he received the Pillar of Public Service Award from America’s Public Television Stations for his leadership in public media and an award from his alma mater, Saint Louis University, for his distinguished career.

Please keep the family in your thoughts.

On behalf of his Nine Network family,
David Steward II
Chair, Nine Network Board of Directors
Imagine my delight at being inducted into the 2019 Billiken Hall of Fame and honored with the Distinguished Alumni Award and the Bob Burnes Award as a member of the 1967 men’s soccer team.

Being a member of the 1967 and 1969 championship teams was an experience for the ages. The pride of representing St. Louis University and the city of St. Louis has shaped my professional life. I am proud to be a lifelong Billiken, a native son of St. Louis, and committed to a career of public service to improve the lives of the people in our region.

I also proudly accepted America’s Public Television Stations’ Pillar of Public Service Award for Nine’s civic leadership in bringing the community together to find solutions to important issues like the mortgage crisis, high-school graduation rates, early education, the gap between employment skills and available jobs in the St. Louis market. And for creating the Public Media Commons and chronicling the history and culture of the St. Louis region through hundreds of hours of locally produced programming.

These accolades would not be possible without your support. Because of our community of supporters, Nine Network can proudly champion local or national stories that educate, engage, entertain, connect and challenge people.

One of the places you will find us bringing stories to life is in the Public Media Commons. The Public Media Commons continues to be a unique outdoor space for creative expressions and community gatherings.

If you haven’t visited the award-winning Public Media Commons, you will have lots of opportunities to do so in the coming months.

Most of our events are free and they are listed at nineNet.org/events. See page 8 for the Dancing in the Commons schedule.

We are prepping for our biennial gala this fall. We will delve into the history of country music, mark our 65th year as a public media organization, and raise funds to support our nationally recognized work in the community and our one-of-a-kind programs, like September’s eight-part Country Music series from Ken Burns’ team.

We have tied the milestone of Nine’s 65th birthday on September 20 to the levels of sponsorship for the Pioneer Spirit Gala: Sparkle and Twang on September 21. Research shows that public television audiences see organizations that are affiliated with Nine Network as concerned about and contributing to the community. Please contact me if you are interested in sponsoring this one-of-a-kind event.

Another way for the community to support us is during Give STL Day on May 1. Take pride in your community by going to givestlday.org and contributing any amount you can.

We are truly grateful to our community of supporters for helping us fuel positive change in the St. Louis region by telling stories that matter.

Yours truly,

Jack Galmiche
President and CEO
1 Grand Center Arts District Tour Stop at Nine
Members of the YMCA’s Active Older Adults group in Monroe County, IL, visit the Grand Center Arts District in March, including a stop at Nine and the Public Media Commons.

2 Changing the Narrative around High-Demand Skilled Careers
Our March 25 Living St. Louis special on the 2018 State of the St. Louis Workforce Report featured a group of recent high-school graduates in our studio sharing what they’ve learned in careers in the trades.

3 Won’t You Be My Neighbor?
Attendees of our March screening of the Fred Roger’s bio-doc received a “kindness” postcard to share with family, friends, and neighbors.

4 The Life and Times of an American Icon
An April screening and discussion in Nine’s Bayer Studio with the director of Joseph Pulitzer: Voice of the People was a fascinating look at a St. Louis legend and founder of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

5 Galmiche Inducted into Hall of Fame

A National Night of Remembrance

Live television event on the eve of Memorial Day.

The National Memorial Day Concert, America’s national night of remembrance, returns for a special 30th anniversary broadcast. The concert features uplifting musical performances, documentary footage, and dramatic readings that honor the military service of all our men and women in uniform and their families.

This year promises to deliver another outstanding television event on the eve of Memorial Day with the return of co-hosts and acclaimed actors Joe Mantegna and Gary Sinise. The National Symphony Orchestra will once again perform under the direction of top pops conductor Jack Everly.

Since 1989, the producers of this multi-award-winning event have been privileged to welcome acclaimed stars from the worlds of stage, screen and music. This year’s all-star line-up includes distinguished American leader General Colin L. Powell USA (Ret.); Academy Award-nominated actor Sam Elliott (A Star Is Born); “Godmother of Soul” and Grammy Hall of Famer Patti LaBelle; multi-Grammy Award-winning bluegrass legend Alison Krauss; platinum-selling country music star Justin Moore; and television series star Jaina Lee Ortiz (Station 19, Rosewood).
BROADCAST WILL FEATURE POWERFUL STORIES

This year marks the 75th anniversary of the D-Day invasion. Through the eyes of a highly decorated combat medic who landed in the first wave on Omaha Beach, the concert will pay tribute to the heroes who sacrificed and died in service to our nation and the world during World War II.

Follow the story of two infantrymen who formed a brotherhood while serving in Vietnam and now meet each year at the Wall. A special 50th anniversary commemoration honors the service and sacrifice of veterans of the Vietnam War.

For Gold Star families, every day is Memorial Day. This year, the concert will share Ursula Palmer’s journey, beginning with the day her worst fears came true. While she could never “move on” from this devastating loss, she knew that for the sake of her daughter she would have to learn to move forward. Along the way she found solace and empowerment in helping other widows and widowers.

The National Memorial Day Concert is broadcast live from the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, DC, Sunday, May 26, at 7:00 p.m., with a rebroadcast immediately following at 8:30 p.m. The concert is also broadcast to our troops serving around the world on the American Forces Network.
This past December, _Live from Lincoln Center_ welcomed some of Broadway’s brightest stars—Cynthia Erivo, Annaleigh Ashford, and Megan Hilty—for the second edition of the critically acclaimed Stars in Concert performance series.

Live from _Lincoln Center: Stars in Concert_ spotlights leading voices of musical theater. Cynthia Erivo, Tony, Emmy, and Grammy Award winner for “The Color Purple,” is currently filming the title role in Kasi Lemmons’ highly anticipated Harriet Tubman biopic, _Harriet_. She can be seen in Drew Goddard’s _Bad Times at the El Royale_ opposite Jeff Bridges and Steve McQueen’s _Widows_ opposite Viola Davis.

Annaleigh Ashford (FX’s _American Crime Story: Versace_) won a Tony Award for her portrayal of Essie in the Broadway revival of “You Can’t Take It with You” and recently starred opposite Jake Gyllenhaal in Stephen Sondheim’s “Sunday in the Park with George.”

Megan Hilty (above), Tony-nominee for “Noises Off,” is best known as Ivy Lynn from NBC’s _Smash_ and for her starring role in Dolly Parton’s “9 to 5 The Musical.”

Live from Lincoln Center is a cornerstone of performing arts broadcasting, presenting the world’s greatest artists and performances in music, dance, and theater from Lincoln Center’s renowned stages. Now in its 43rd season on PBS, the pioneering series—produced by Lincoln Center in New York City—has been seen by hundreds of millions of viewers since its debut and celebrated by 17 Emmy Awards and other honors for its broadcasting excellence.
“I want kids to access technology like I did — regardless of circumstance or where they live. That’s why we helped cofound Create a Loop through our donor advised fund. There, kids learn to develop apps and games — not just play them. I want to provide opportunities for kids on both sides of Delmar to learn computer science. So for every child who pays full tuition, another attends on scholarship. The Community Foundation helped make all of this possible.”

This summer we will host another season of Dancing in the Commons, presented by AARP in St. Louis. Dancing in the Commons is the perfect event to try something new in a relaxed, fun atmosphere for those 18 and older.

Professional instructors from Convergence Dance and Body Center will demonstrate basic dance steps before the party gets started. The series is a partnership with the Nine Network and St. Louis Public Radio.

SCHEDULE

June 14 | Disco
July 12 | Salsa
August 9 | Line Dancing

Free, but registration is required at nineNet.org/events.

“I loved being outdoors on a beautiful Friday night. ...I especially liked the diversity of age, gender, race, and ability of the crowd that attended. Everyone could feel they were welcomed and belonged.”

Gentlemen of Vision
Screened in Colombia

In March, Nine’s Gentlemen of Vision was screened in Cartagena, Colombia, as part of the American Film Showcase (AFS), a cultural diplomacy program of the U.S. State Department.

The film’s co-directors Jim Kirchherr, Nine Network senior director of content, and Frank Popper, independent producer, and Marlon Wharton, founder and coach of Gentlemen of Vision, traveled to Colombia in support of the film for screenings, workshops, and discussions with groups of young people.

“You arrive seeing the differences among us, and you leave appreciating the similarities,” says Kirchherr.

New PBS KIDS Series Features Native American

Molly of Denali is the first nationally distributed children’s series to feature a Native American lead character. Alaska Native Molly Mabray, a feisty and resourceful 10-year-old Gwich’in/Koyukon/Dena’ina Athabascan girl, takes viewers ages 4 to 8 along with her on adventures and fosters literacy skills along the way. The series premieres in July. With an emphasis on family and intergenerational relationships, episodes model Alaska Native values, such as respecting others, sharing, and honoring your elders.

Nature Cat is an animated PBS KIDS series designed to encourage children to explore and develop connections with the natural world. The event will include an appearance by Nature Cat, activities, and more.

Nature Cat airs weekdays on Nine PBS at 7:00 a.m. and weekends at 8:30 a.m. It airs on Nine PBS KIDS at 5:00 and 5:30 p.m., and late night at 1:00 and 1:30 a.m. Digital resources related to the series, including games, streaming video, hands-on activities and parent resources, are available at nineNet.org/ninepbskids.

Celebrate Kids to Parks Day at Gateway Arch with Nature Cat

Nine, in partnership with National Park Trust and National Park Service, welcomes PBS KIDS’ Nature Cat to the Gateway Arch National Park for Kids to Parks Day on Saturday, May 18 from noon–4:00 p.m. Always eager and enthusiastic to be outdoors, Nature Cat will bring nature- and STEM-focused, curriculum-based fun for children.

“Man-in-the-Loop” Series

A new digital series from Nine, Tyale McNary: He May Be Wrong, But He Doubts It, follows a hilariously opinionated host (McNary) as he shares his life stories and passion for everything from politics to seasoning, and then discusses them with participants on the streets of the Delmar Loop.

The project came about when filmmaker and producer Frank Popper was considering him as a subject for his latest documentary, after he appeared in the Nine-produced Gentlemen of Vision. “The camera loves him…After months of following him with a camera, a doc wasn’t coming to me, but I noticed…he had hilarious observations about life. I realized that he was able to see an issue from multiple perspectives.”

“I hope that the show challenges people to think and to view the world as a place we have the power to change for the better, in addition to having uncontrollable outbursts of laughter,” says McNary. “Although the show focuses on the divides we face, it also shows just how much we all have in common.”

The show is distributed in conjunction with the Delmar Loop, which serves as an exclusive filming location for interviews. “The Delmar Loop is a celebration of people from all walks of life and it’s one of the most diverse business districts in the St. Louis region,” says Rachelle L’Ecuyer, executive director of the Delmar Loop. “Helping to promote the series is a natural extension of what the Delmar Loop is all about.”

Catch the latest digital series with host Tyale McNary on Facebook, YouTube, or nineNet.org.
Uncover a Treasure

Would you like to learn more about the value and history of a family treasure or yard sale find? Become a member or renew your membership to the Nine Network at the $60 level to receive free admission to Trash or Treasure 2019.

Now in its eighth year, Trash or Treasure, presented in partnership with Kodner Gallery, is an evaluation event from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at the Gateway Center in Collinsville, IL, on June 22.

Ticket holders receive an evaluation of two objects from specialists in more than 20 categories, including fine art, books, stamps, coins, military, toys, rugs, porcelain, glass, and more.

A one-year Nine Network membership at the $60 level allows you to bring two objects.

For tickets and membership, call member services at (314) 512-9045. Tickets and membership can also be purchased on-site at the event.

Nine at Art on the Square

Nine will participate in Art on the Square, May 17-19. The juried fine art show located in beautiful downtown Belleville, IL, features the original work of over 100 accomplished artists from around the world, music and stage performances, as well as local food and drink.

Admission is free. Stop by our booth to pick up information on summer programming and events, PBS KIDS, and more! Go to artonthesquare.com for hours.

Annie Oakley: American Experience

She was the toast of Victorian London, New York, and Paris. She was “adopted” by Indian chief Sitting Bull, charmed the Prince of Prussia, and entertained the likes of Oscar Wilde and Queen Victoria. Annie Oakley excelled in a man’s world by doing what she loved and won fame and fortune as the little lady from Ohio who never missed a shot.

Light Falls

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of Albert Einstein’s discovery of the general theory of relativity, this original work weaves together dramatic portrayals, state-of-the-art animation and innovative projection techniques to trace his journey toward one of the most beautiful ideas ever conceived.

Brian Greene and an ensemble cast tell the dramatic story of the breakthrough moments, near misses, agonizing frustrations, and emergence into the light, as one intrepid mind took on the universe and won.

One Child

The 2008 Sichuan earthquake, killed 90,000 people, including more than 5,000 children. In China the tragedy was compounded by the one-child policy. In response to the earthquake, China's government made an exception for those who lost their only child to conceive another. One Child follows the journey of three families as they try to restore a sense of normalcy and struggle to move past the loss of their children.

Sunday, May 12, 10:00 p.m.

Omaha Beach: Honor and Sacrifice

The very personal stories of several World War II veterans as they return to Omaha Beach. The film documents the celebration in Normandy that continues to this day as a result of American soldiers' acts of courage and determination on June 6, 1944.

The Best of the Buddy Rich Show

A collection of big band performances recorded in 1982 but never broadcast – in fact, never edited. In that year, the legendary drummer was offered the chance to host his own television program. Three programs were filmed at New York City’s venerable Statler Hilton Hotel, each featuring Buddy Rich and his band with special guests: Ray Charles, Woody Herman, Lionel Hampton, Stan Getz, Gerry Mulligan, and Mel Torme.
